

REVOCABLE TRUST AGREEMENT

EVELYN E. GRAUEL

THIS TRUST AGREEMENT, made this 21st day of May, 1990, by and between EVELYN E. GRAUEL, of the State of Maryland, hereinafter called the "Grantor", and the "Trustee".

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Grantor desires to establish a trust or trusts of certain property which is listed on Schedule A attached hereto and expressly made a part hereof, together with such other assets, if any, as may be from time to time delivered to or made payable to the Trustee;

FOR AND IN CONSIDERATION of the mutual covenants herein set forth and for other good and valuable consideration, it is agreed that:

1. The Trustee and her successor or successors shall hold the property listed on Schedule A and such other property as may be from time to time delivered to or made payable to the Trustee, IN TRUST, NEVERTHELESS, for the uses and purposes and according to the provisions following:

ARTICLE I: The Grantor is the owner of the property listed on Schedule A attached hereto and made a part hereof, which the Grantor agrees to deliver or cause to be delivered to the Trustee or to place within the control of the Trustee, which, when received or placed within the Trustee's control, shall be held and/or administered by the Trustee subject to the following provisions:

ARTICLE II: The Trustee is hereby authorized to hold registered stocks and bonds in the name of her nominee.

ARTICLE III: The Trustee shall collect the income from the said property and from any investments and/or property into which the same may be converted or which may be added hereto, and after deducting any expenses chargeable thereto and her compensation as hereinafter provided, the Trustee shall pay the net income to or for the benefit of the Grantor, at convenient intervals, but at least quarter-annually, for and during her lifetime. In addition thereto, the Trustee is hereby authorized to invade the principal of this trust to pay to or for the use or benefit of Grantor such sum or sums as she may deem necessary for the support, maintenance and care of Grantor in accordance with the standard of living to which she has been accustomed and for payment of her hospital, medical, dental, nursing or nursing home expenses and funeral expenses after Grantor's death.

ARTICLE IV: Upon the death of the Grantor this trust shall become irrevocable and the Trustee shall continue to hold the remaining corpus of the trust as follows:

A. If Grantor's husband, GEORGE H. GRAUEL, survives Grantor, Grantor gives and bequeaths to him an amount equal to the unlimited estate tax marital deduction allowable to Grantor's estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes (as determined by the law in effect at the date of Grantor's death), less the aggregate amount of marital deductions, if any, allowed for such tax purposes by reason of property or interests in property passing or which have passed to Grantor's husband otherwise than by the terms of this Article. However, this devise and bequest shall not exceed the minimum amount which will result in no payment of federal estate tax by reason of Grantor's death, after taking into consideration all deductions and credits allowable to Grantor's estate (as determined by the law in effect at the date of Grantor's death); provided, however, that the credit for state death taxes shall be taken into account only to the extent that doing so does not increase any state death taxes payable.

The Trustees shall assign, convey and distribute to Grantor's said husband the cash, securities and other property, including real estate and interests therein, which shall constitute said bequest. The cash, securities and other property so distributed shall be selected in such manner as to have an aggregate fair market value fairly representative of the appreciation or depreciation in the value on the date or dates of each distribution of all property then available for distribution. Any property included in Grantor's estate at the time of Grantor's death and assigned or conveyed in kind to satisfy said bequest shall be valued for that purpose at the value thereof as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes, and any other property so assigned and conveyed shall be valued for that purpose at its cost. No asset or proceeds of any asset shall be included in said bequest as to which a marital deduction is not allowable if included. Said bequest shall abate to the extent that it cannot be satisfied in the manner hereinabove provided.

ARTICLE V: Subject to the foregoing, the remaining balance of the rest, residue and remainder of Grantor's property and estate, real, personal or mixed, of whatsoever kind or character and wheresoever situated, after allowance or payment therefrom of all inheritance, estate and succession taxes and charges of every description, Grantor, gives, devises and bequeaths to the Trustees, IN TRUST, NEVERTHELESS, for the following purposes:

A. The net income therefrom shall be paid to or used and expended for the benefit of Grantor's husband at convenient intervals, but at least quarter-annually, from the date of Grantor's death, for and during his lifetime.

B. If, during the lifetime of Grantor's husband, the net income from this trust, together with such other funds as may be available to Grantor's said husband from other sources, be insufficient for his support and maintenance in accordance with the standard of living to which he has been accustomed, then and in such case the Trustees are authorized to pay to or use and expend for the benefit of Grantor's husband, so much of the corpus of this trust as in their sole and uncontrolled discretion may be deemed necessary for such purposes. The Trustees shall be entitled to rely on any statement of Grantor's husband as to his income and resources without the necessity of inquiring into or verifying the same.

C. From and after the death of Grantor's said husband or if he shall not survive Grantor, then from and after Grantor's death, this trust shall cease and determine and the Trustees shall distribute the principal and any accumulated income, in equal shares to Grantor's children, FOREST L. GRAUEL, ROBERT GRAUEL, GERALD GRAUEL and GEORGE WARREN GRAUEL, (subject to the paragraph below) and in the event of their death, by right of representation, to their issue, per stirpes and not per capita.

However, the share for Grantor's son, GEORGE WARREN GRAUEL, shall not be distributed to him but shall be distributed to SANDY SPRING NATIONAL BANK OF MARYLAND, a Maryland banking institution, its successor or successor, as Trustee, IN TRUST, NEVERTHELESS, for the following purposes:

A. The net income therefrom shall be paid to or used and expended for the benefit of Grantor's son, GEORGE WARREN GRAUEL, at convenient intervals, but at least quarter-annually, from the date of Grantor's death, for and during his lifetime.

B. If, during the lifetime of Grantor's son, the net income from this trust, together with such other funds as may be available to Grantor's said son from other sources, be insufficient for his support and maintenance in accordance with the standard of living to which he has been accustomed, then and in such case the Trustee is authorized to pay to or use and expend for the benefit of Grantor's son, so much of the corpus of this trust as in its sole and uncontrolled discretion may be deemed necessary for such purposes. The Trustee shall be entitled to rely on any statement of Grantor's son as to his income and resources without the necessity of inquiring into or verifying the same.

C. From and after the death of Grantor's said son or if he shall not survive Grantor, then from and after Grantor's death, this trust shall cease and terminate and the Trustee shall distribute the principal and any accumulated income, in equal shares to his issue, by right of representation, per stirpes and not per capita and in default of any issue then per stirpes to Grantor's other issue.

SANDY SPRING NATIONAL BANK OF MARYLAND may consult with the brothers of GEORGE WARREN GRAUEL from time to time as to his needs.

ARTICLE VI: If Grantor's husband, GEORGE H. GRAUEL, predeceases Grantor, Grantor hereby grants to Grantor's son, FOREST LEE GRAUEL, the right to purchase from Grantor's estate the home including the barn and outbuildings where he presently lives in and as much from the immediately contiguous land as he may desire to purchase from his share of the estate and additionally on a first right of refusal basis. The purchase price for said land will be its fair market value on the date of Grantor's death as determined by the Trustees or the Personal Representatives or Executors of Grantor's Estate. Grantor's son shall have ninety (90) days after receiving a copy of the appraisal accepted by the Trustee or the Personal Representatives or Executors from the Trustees or the Personal Representatives or Executors of Grantor's estate to exercise their right to purchase. Grantor's son may apply toward the purchase price of said property all or part of his share of Grantor's estate. If a dispute arises regarding the purchase price of said property the Trustees or the Personal Representatives or Executors of Grantor's estate shall decide such matters and their decision shall be final and conclusive on all parties. If Grantor's husband does not predecease Grantor, the right to purchase hereby granted may still be exercised provided Grantor's husband consents to such sale. As of the date of this Trust there are no liens on said property. Should a lien be placed on said property after the date of this Trust, said lien shall be paid by Grantor's estate prior to the conveyance. Costs involved in surveying such property to determine boundary lines shall be charged against Grantor's estate.

ARTICLE VII: If any part of this trust estate shall vest in absolute ownership in any minor, herein meaning any person under the age of twenty-one (21) years, Grantor hereby authorizes the Trustee, in her sole discretion, in such case, to hold, administer, invest and reinvest such part for such minor's benefit during his or her minority, and to apply so much of the net income and such part of the principal of said share as said Trustee, in her discretion, shall deem necessary to such minor's proper care, maintenance, support and education, or, in the discretion of said Trustee, to make such payments to the legal guardian of such minor, or otherwise, as the Trustee may, from time to time, deem expedient, and to accumulate, for the benefit of such minor, any income not so applied or paid; but this authority shall be construed as a power only and shall not operate to suspend the absolute ownership of such share, or of such accumulations of income, if any, of such minor, or to prevent the absolute vesting thereof in such minor. If such minor dies before becoming twenty-one (21) years of age, his or her entire share as then constituted, shall be paid over to his or her estate.

ARTICLE VIII: Neither the corpus of this trust created hereby, nor the income resulting therefrom while in the hands of Grantor's Trustee, shall be subject to any conveyance, transfer or assignment, or be pledged as security for any debt of any beneficiary thereof (other than the Grantor) and the same shall not be subject to any claim of any creditor of any such beneficiary (other than the Grantor) through legal process or otherwise; any such attempted sale, anticipation, assignment or pledge of any of the funds or property held in any such trust, or the income therefrom, by such beneficiaries or any of them shall be null and void and shall not be recognized by the Trustee. It is the intention to place the absolute title to the property held in trust and the income therefrom in the Trustee with power and authority to pay out the same only as authorized hereby.

ARTICLE IX: The Grantor hereby reserves unto herself the right and power at any time and from time to time during her lifetime to revoke the trusts hereby created, in whole or in part, and to change, alter, modify, or amend, in any respect, any of the terms and provisions hereof, including the power to withdraw from the trust estate any and all funds and other property, real and personal, now or hereafter received from her by the Trustee hereunder, by written notice delivered to the Trustee during her lifetime, without the consent of any other person and without notice to any person other than the Trustee; provided, however, that the terms of this Agreement shall not be altered by the Grantor in such manner as to increase the obligations or reduce the rate of compensation of the Trustee without her consent.

Upon the revocation hereof or the withdrawal or other disposition of funds or property as herein provided, the Trustee shall transfer, assign, convey, pay over and deliver all of the principal and income of the trust estate then in her hands, or so much thereof as the Grantor shall have designated for withdrawal or other disposition, to the Grantor, or to such other persons and in such amounts as the Grantor shall designate in such written notice.

ARTICLE X: The powers and discretions hereinafter granted to the Trustee are in addition to, and not in derogation or limitation of, any other powers implied or necessary for the performance of the duties of the Trustee, and all such powers may be exercised by the Trustee without previous application to or subsequent ratification by any Court of Law, Equity or Probate.

The Grantor hereby expressly authorizes and empowers the Trustee, in her sole and absolute discretion:

A. To invest, reinvest and change the investments of any trust and to keep the same invested in such stocks, common, preferred, bonds, mortgages, ground rents, or other property, real or personal, including, but not limited to, the right to invest the trust estate, either in whole or in part, in any common trust fund being administered by the Trustees or affiliates of a Corporate Trustee, including money market funds managed by it or through its affiliate, or in stock or obligation of the Trustee, as she may consider advisable or proper, without being restricted as to the character of any investment by any statute or rule of law or court governing the investment of trust funds.

B. To retain any and all property received from the Grantor's estate, or from the estate of Grantor's husband until such time as she may deem it desirable to sell or otherwise dispose of the same. To receive by inter vivos transfer or by Will from any other person or source additional assets acceptable to her. To hold and/or purchase or otherwise acquire insurance policies or contracts on the life of any person as asset of any trust hereunder, and to pay premiums on any such policy or contract out of the principal or income of any such trust.

C. To sell (either at public or private sale) lease for such term or terms as she may deem desirable, irrespective of the possible termination of the trust, pledge, mortgage, transfer, exchange, partition, convert or otherwise dispose of, or grant options with respect to, any and all property, real or personal, at any time forming a part of this trust, in such manner, at credit and conditions as she may deem desirable.

D. To borrow money for any purposes connected with the protection, preservation or improvement of any trust created hereunder, whenever she shall deem such action advisable.

E. To vote in person or by general or limited proxy, with or without power of substitution, with respect to any shares of stock or other securities held by her and to consent, directly or through a committee, or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution or liquidation of any corporation in which any trust may have any interest, or to the sale, lease, pledge or mortgage of any property by or to any such corporation; and to make any payments and to take any step which she may deem necessary or proper to obtain the benefit of any such transaction.

F. To administer the trusts hereunder in accordance with the provisions of the Maryland "Principal and Income Act" in force and effect from time to time, except that the Grantor directs that all so-called capital gains dividends from regulated investment companies shall be allocated to principal.

G. To pay, compromise, compound, extend, modify, renew, adjust, submit to arbitration, sell or release any claims or demands of any trust hereunder against others or of others against any such trust as she shall deem advisable, and to make any payments in connection therewith.

H. To create reserves out of income to insure prompt payment of taxes or assessments, repairs, general or special, and other obligations, and to restore to income such reserves as may be unused.

I. To advance money for the protection of the trust or its property and for all expenses, losses and liabilities incurred in or about the execution or protection of the trust or because of the holding or ownership of any property subject thereto. For all such advances, the Trustee shall have a lien on the trust property and may reimburse herself with interest therefor out of the trust property.

J. To receive other property, of any type, which may be devised, bequeathed, assigned, granted, conveyed or made payable to the Trustee by anyone whomsoever, to be added to the trust estate and any property so received by the Trustee shall be added to and administered as part of the trust estate.

K. To employ attorneys, accountants, agents, and brokers in the administration of the trust estate.

L. To make divisions or distributions of all or any part of the assets of any trust in money or in kind, or partly in money and partly in kind, including real estate, and to cause any share, part or portion of any such trust to be composed of property different in kind from any other share, part or portion (subject, however, to the provisions of Article VI hereof;) and for the purposes of such allotment the judgment of the Trustee concerning the propriety thereof and the relative value for the purpose of division or distribution of the property so allotted shall be binding and conclusive on all persons interested therein.

M. To execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all instruments in writing which the Trustee may deem advisable to carry out any of the foregoing powers, including the power to indicate any division or distribution of any trust by deeds or other writings or instruments recorded among the public records of any jurisdiction where any such property may be located. No party to any such instrument in writing signed by the Trustee shall be bound to see to the application by her of any money or other property paid or delivered to her pursuant to the terms of such instrument.

N. To treat the entire trust estate as a common fund for the purpose of investment, notwithstanding any provisions herein for division thereof into shares or separate trusts.

O. The Grantor directs that all powers herein granted shall last beyond the termination of the trust or trusts herein created until a complete and final distribution of all assets held hereunder shall be made.

P. The Trustee, in her sole and absolute discretion, may cause the securities or other investments that may from time to time comprise the trust estate, or any part thereof, to be registered in her name, or in the name of her nominee, or may take and keep them unregistered and may retain the same or any part thereof in such condition that they will pass by delivery.

Q. The Trustee shall pay and is hereby directed by Grantor to pay any Federal Estate Taxes due on the estate of the decedent up to but not exceeding an amount equal to the face value of all U. S. Treasury Bonds eligible for payment of Federal Estate Taxes by redemption at par. In addition, the Trustee may, in her sole discretion, pay to the personal representative or representatives of the Grantor's estate, upon their written request, such sums as said personal representative or representatives shall certify in writing to be required for the payment of all estate, inheritance, succession or other taxes lawfully assessed by reason of the Grantor's death, or may purchase securities or property of any kind, real or personal, from, and also make loans or advances, to, the personal representative or representatives of the estate of the Grantor in case such person or persons are, in the opinion of the Trustee, in need of cash with which to pay such taxes, and/or to pay claims, or other indebtedness of the estate of the Grantor and if the Trustee deems any such loan or advance proper and to the best interests of the beneficiaries hereunder. Such loans or advances may be secured or unsecured. The Trustee shall not be liable in any way for the loss resulting to the trust estate or any trust created hereunder by reason of such loans or advances having been made, nor liable for depreciation in value of any assets purchased from the personal representative or representatives of the Grantor's estate, under the powers hereby granted. The Trustee may also, in her discretion, pay such taxes and expenses directly to the Governmental authorities to whom they are payable, respectively.

R. The Trustee, while acting in good faith, shall not be liable or held responsible for any loss or depreciation in the value of any trust created hereunder, but shall be liable only for loss resulting from her own willful default or gross negligence.

S. Provided, however, any provision in this instrument to the contrary notwithstanding, if at any time said Trustee, in her discretion, shall determine that the size of any trust arising hereunder, or of any share therein, does not warrant the costs of continuing the same in trust, or its administration would be otherwise impractical, said Trustee, in full discharge of the duty of the Trustee or Trustees then acting hereunder, without formal Court accounting, may pay the remaining principal and income of such trust or share therein to the person then entitled or permitted to receive the income therefrom or, if such person be legally incapable of receiving such share, may pay the same to the estate, committee, trustee, guardian, parent or person having custody of such person, or may deposit it in a savings fund in the name of such person, if a minor, payable to such minor upon attaining the age of twenty-one (21) years. Upon any such payment or deposit under the provisions of this paragraph, the interests of all succeeding beneficiaries, whether vested or contingent, shall be terminated and said Trustee or, as the case may be, all said Trustees shall be relieved of all liability in connection with such fund and shall not be required to account therefor in any Court.

T. All powers (discretionary or otherwise) and all duties and immunities herein conferred or imposed upon the Trustees in this Trust Agreement or by Law shall be appurtenant to the office and shall devolve upon any surviving, remaining or successor Trustee; provided, however, that if any beneficiary hereunder, whether vested or contingent shall be or become a Trustee of any trust or trusts created hereunder, he or she shall not have any discretionary power with respect to the payment or non-payment of any sums out of the income from or principal of any trust hereunder, to himself or herself or to discharge any legal obligation of support or any other legal obligation of any such Trustee, but all such discretionary powers and decisions related thereto granted by this Trust Agreement with respect to such discretionary payments from time to time shall vest solely in the other Trustee or Trustees.

U. The trust hereby created shall be administered in the State of Maryland. It is the intention of the parties hereto that this Trust Agreement shall in all respects be construed and interpreted according to the laws of the State of Maryland and that the parties hereto in all things in respect thereto shall be governed by such laws. This paragraph shall not, however, in any way be deemed or construed to limit any of the rights, powers, privileges and discretions of the Trustee or to prevent her investing in property, real or personal, located outside of the State of Maryland.

ARTICLE XI: Upon the consent of the Trustee, the Grantor may deposit with, or grant, convey, assign, transfer, devise, bequeath or make payable unto the Trustee, from time to time during the period of the trust or trusts herein created, additional funds, securities and other property, real or personal, including other policies of insurance, and such additions shall be added to the trust estate hereunder and shall be by the Trustee held, administered and disposed of upon the same terms, conditions, and provisions as if such additions had originally constituted a part of the trust estate created hereunder by the Grantor.

ARTICLE XII: No trustee shall have any duty to review the acts of any Personal Representative or prior Trustee; nor shall any trustee be liable for any act or failure to act on the part of any Personal Representative or prior Trustee.

ARTICLE XIII: If, at any time during the existence of this trust, the Trustee shall be holding assets in another trust established by a Will or an Agreement which contains the same terms and provisions with regard to the same beneficiaries thereof as are set forth in this Agreement, the Trustee is hereby authorized to combine the assets so held and to administer said assets either wholly under this Agreement or wholly under such other Will or Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV: A. It is the express intention of the Grantor that the trusts hereby created shall not be administered under the supervision of a Court of Equity, and in the event that the Trustee shall at any time apply to any Court of competent jurisdiction for any purpose whatsoever in connection with any such trust or the provisions of this Agreement it is Grantor's intention that such Court shall have jurisdiction of the specific matter in question and shall not take jurisdiction over the trust estate or any trust created hereunder unless requested to do so by the Trustee.

ARTICLE XV: The use of the singular word "Trustee" herein shall also include and mean the plural "Trustees" wherever deemed appropriate herein and vice versa and shall also include the masculine, feminine or neuter gender wherever deemed appropriate.

ARTICLE XVI: If for any reason the value of the assets in Grantor's probate estate which shall be needed by the Trustees in order to fulfill the formula requirements of the Marital Deduction Gift, as hereinbefore provided in Article IV, shall be insufficient to take advantage of the unlimited estate tax marital deduction under federal estate tax laws, as determined by the law in effect at the date of Grantor's death, Grantor directs the Trustees immediately to pay over directly to Grantor's husband, out of any funds received or acquired by them as a result of Grantor's death, but not constituting a part of my probate estate, an amount equal to any such deficiency of the marital deduction gift so that the marital deduction gift under the federal estate tax laws as provided in the formula in Article IV will be afforded to Grantor's estate.

ARTICLE XVII: Upon the death, resignation or incapacity (in the opinion of two licensed physicians) of EVELYN E. GRAUEL, as Trustee, Grantor hereby nominates, constitutes and appoints Grantor's husband, GEORGE H. GRAUEL, and Grantor's three sons, FOREST L. GRAUEL, ROBERT H. GRAUEL and GERALD W. GRAUEL, as Trustees and they shall become vested with all the rights and powers of Trustee as though originally named herein. Upon the death, resignation or incapacity, in the opinion of two licensed physicians, of Grantor's husband, GEORGE H. GRAUEL, and Grantor's three sons, FOREST L. GRAUEL, ROBERT H. GRAUEL and GERALD W. GRAUEL, as Trustees, Grantor hereby nominates, constitutes and appoints SANDY SPRING NATIONAL BANK OF MARYLAND, a Maryland banking institution, its successor or successors, as a Trustee and it shall become vested with all the rights and powers of a Trustee as though originally named herein. In addition Grantor's said sons, FOREST L. GRAUEL, ROBERT H. GRAUEL and GERALD W. GRAUEL, or Grantor's husband, GEORGE H. GRAUEL, may at any time appoint the SANDY SPRING NATIONAL BANK OF MARYLAND, its successor or successors, as a Co-Trustee.

ARTICLE XVIII: A. The Grantor shall make, execute and deliver in due form of law, such other and further instruments as the Trustee may deem requisite or necessary to effectuate the purposes hereof.

B. The individual Trustee, other than Grantor, shall be entitled to receive compensation at the rate from time to time charged by local corporate Trustees and to receive such additional compensation for services of any unusual nature, such as investigations relating to the payments to be made in the exercise of discretion conferred hereunder, and other unusual services of whatever nature not incidental to the normal management and administration of the trust estate. However when there is a corporate Trustee, the individual Trustee shall serve without compensation.

C. The corporate Trustee shall be compensated for the performance of its services in accordance with its schedule of fees in effect from time to time for similar services during the period in which its services are rendered. The corporate Trustee shall be entitled to receive additional compensation for services of any unusual nature, such as investigations relating to the payments to be made in the exercise of discretion conferred hereunder, and other unusual services of whatever nature not incidental to the normal management and administration of the trust estate.

In addition, at the death of Grantor, said Trustee may also receive as reasonable fee for its services in connection with the settling of Grantor's estate for which it is not otherwise adequately compensated. Such fee shall be limited to a maximum of Two Percent (2%) of the value of the principal of the trust estate on the date of Grantor's death unless a higher fee is warranted under the circumstances and is approved by a majority of the beneficiaries who are then legally competent.

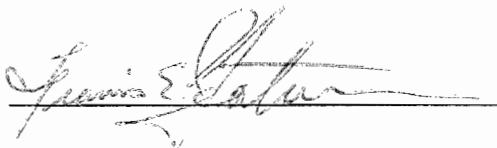

D. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, and their heirs, personal representatives and successors, respectively.

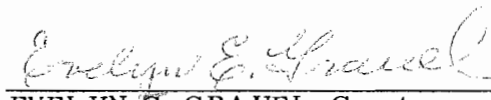

E. This Trust Agreement has been accepted by the Trustee in the State of Maryland, and all questions pertaining to its validity, construction and administration shall be determined in accordance with the laws of that State.

THE TRUSTEE HEREBY ACCEPTS THE TRUSTS herein created and covenants and agrees to and with the Grantor in consideration hereof that she will execute the same as herein provided with all due fidelity, and will account for all funds, securities or other property, real or personal, received by her hereunder, at such reasonable times as may be requested by the Grantor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, EVELYN E. GRAUEL, as Grantor and Trustee has hereunto set her hand and seal all as of the day and year first above written.
